

1. To make an account, the user navigates to the Grad Connect website and creates their account
2. The user accesses the main page after entering information and creating a new account.
3. To view the room, the user clicks on a topic that piques their attention(this being javascript).
4. They return to the home page after reading the conversations.
5. They see someone they do not know on the suggestions so they click the thumbs down option, and a new suggestion replaces the deleted one.
6. They choose to connect with a user they recognize on the homepage.
7. The user chooses to get in touch after seeing the direct message option.
8. The user reads their profile page following a back-and-forth conversation.
9. The user can view items like their added friends and settings on the profile page.